REV. MR. HUNNICUTT'S LECTURE.-A large crowd assembled at the First Colored Baptist Church, on Alfred street, last night, to bear a lecture delivered by the Rev. Mr. Hunnicutt Among the audience were about twenty white persons, including Judge Underwood, but no old residents of the city. A colored preacher, named Madden, opened the services with prayer, and, after a hymn was sung, the lecturer commenced and concluded a rambling, illogical, egotistical, incendiary, demagogueical fanfaronade, the palpable object of which was to obtain money from his hearers, and which it was entirely unnecessary for him to caution reporters to take down correctly, as reporters have more profitable employment for their evening hours, than to waste them in writing out any such harangue as that delivered last night. [We would state here, par parenthese, that Mr. Hunnicutt is said to have been a secessionist up to the occupation of Fredericksburg, by the U. S. forces.] At the termination of his remarks Judge Underwood was loudly called for, but declined speaking, upon the ground that the audience had better go home, and take to heart what had already been told them. He said. though, that upon some future occasion he would gratify his "fellow-ctizens." R. D. Beckley, a colored man, then made a speech, during which, after urging the immediate increase of the subscription list of the New Nation, (Hunnicutt's paper in Richmond) which its editor had stated was finencially embarrassed, he asked for signatures to a petition which prayed Congress, as he said, to destroy the present State government. After the voluntary appointment of a committee of six, of which R. D. Beckley, colored, was selected as chairman, to solicit subscriptions to Mr. Hannicutt's paper, the lecturer informed his hearers that he would preach in this city next Sunday morning and night; and then a collection having been taken, to defray the expense of the gas and fuel consumed during the evening, the assemblage was dismissed. In a "free country" none can deny the right of free speech, but it is not the part of a true lover of his country during such troublous and unsettled times as now prevail, to countenance a political incendiary speaker, especially when most of the material upon which such speaker has to operate, is considered.

PRESENTATION AT LIBERTY HALL. - A large audience was assembled at Liberty Hall last night, the occasion being the presentation of a bible on the part of Sarepta Lodge, I. O. O. F., to Mount Vernon Division Sons of Temperance. The bible, beautifully bound, and Wm. D. Massey, esq., of this city, who prefaced the presentation with an appropriate address. The bible was received on the part of the Division, by three young ladies, and transferred by them to Mr. L. C. O'Neil, who received the gift in a brief, but appropriate speech. He was followed by Messrs. Bradley and Drew, of Washington, whose addresses were forcible, and to the point, in depicting the evils of intemperance. The two orders of this city were well represented, and there were also present delegates from Washington-a special train bringing them down, and returning with them. A large number of ladies graced the occasion by their presence.

WOOD FOR THE POOR .- A small portion of the wood donated by the government to the poor of this city, yet remains at the wood yard, but at the present rate of applications for it, will not hold out much longer. If the benevolent societies of the city, in imitation of the Order of Odd Fellows, would subscribe a portion of their surplus funds, and if the charitably disposed of our citizens would contribute some of their super abundance, so as to increase the amount now in the hands of the Mayor to $350, he could procure another hundred cords, which would last through another month.

SLEIGHING.—The sleighing still continues excellent in the surrounding country, and on the less frequented streets of the city, and though the horses in this locality are pretty well tired down, still the merry jingling of the sleigh bells is frequently heard. Last night a horse attached to a sleigh belonging to Mr. Braughton, ran away on King street, but its occupants were uninjured; and this morning the horse attached to the sleigh of young Mr. Roberts, of Cameron Mills, ran away, breaking off the shafts of the sleigh, but injured no one.

SMALL MENAGERIE. - A negro man from Fairfax county arrived in town this morning in a box sleigh, with one cow bell around his horse's neck, and bringing with him a roughly constructed cage, in which were contained birds of all the descriptions which inhabit this section during the winter. He had wrens, sparrows, snow birds, sky larks, field larks, and red birds, but such a crowd collected around his unique turn out, that he became alarmed, and hastily drove off from the market house, where he had stopped.

DONATIONS TO THE SOUP HOUSE.-Mr. Whittington has received the following additional donations to the Soup House, since our report of yesterday: From Rev. E. Owen, $5; "Friends," $10; J. Brager, two bushels potatoes; S. Pulman, one barrel turnips and one bushel carrots; Win. Johnson, one bushel turnips; and Joseph Sherwood, a lot of turnips.

PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY MD.-A large number of citizens met at Marlboro' last week to take steps in behalf of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad. Much interest was manifested in the matter, and universal regret and condemnation expressed at the attempt of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to interfere with the work. Georgetown.-About 300 colored voters, under the late law of Congress, it is said, have registered themselves in Georgetown. They will vote at the municipal election, to take place shortly.

FAIRFAX COUNTY .- William Lee has been elected a Justice of the Peace in the 2nd District of Fairfax county, to fill the vacancy oc casioned by the death of Mr. Ferguson.

CONDUCTOR. - Mr. John A. Jones, has been appointed a Conductor on the night passenger train of the O. & A. railroad.

THROUGH TRAVEL TO RICHMOND. -The exclusive privilege which the Fredericksburg and Potomac railroad company, have enjoyed for many years; of carrying passengers through without change of cars from Washington, via. the Aquia Creek line to Richmond, having expired by limitation, the Orange and Alexandria railroad company will, as soon as the additional cars they have ordered-two of which are to be sleeping cars-arrive, which will occur in a few days-commence to transport passengers from Washington to Richmond, via. the Central railroad, without the inconvenience of changing their seats from the time they leave one city until they arrive at the other.

DETENTION OF TRAINS.—The passenger train on the Orange and Alexandria railroad, due here yesterday evening at 4.45, did not arrive until about 8 o'clock, in consequence of an obstruction on the Central railroad, caused by a freight train running off the track on that road yesterday morning, and occasioning a transfer of passengers and baggage at that point. The train due here this morning at 5.55 did not arrive until 11.30 because of the same obstruction.

RECEIVERS APPOINTED .- In the case of Benjamin Cater, of Baltimore, vs. the Central Bank of Virginia, (at Staunton,) et al., for an injunction to set aside an assignment, which was argued before the U.S. District Court, sitting in this place, last week, the Court has rendered a decision, granting an injunction, and appointing Gen. Bradley T. Johnson and Maj. T. Hennissey as receivers. There were about $40,000 involved in the suit.

CIRCUS COMING.—The agent of a Circus company was in the city yesterday, making arrangements for the appearance of his show.

SAFETY OF THE RAILROAD BRIDGE. To the President and Directors of the Washington, Alexandria and Georgetown Railroad GENTLEMEN :- Under your instructions I examined the bridge on your road over the Potomac river, on the 1st instant, and reported that it would be safer if the long spans on the Virginia side were supported in the centre by trestles. I have this day examined the bridge again, and found that trestles have been placed under the centre of each span, as recommended. etors. -R. C. Irwin, Indvana, Tenn.; Charles | and the bridge, in my opinion, is safer and stronger than when first built, and is perfectly secure for the passage of trains required for the local and through business of the road. .
